

MILOŠ TRIFUNOVIĆ

FRONTEND DEVELOPER

My name is Miloš Trifunović and I am an ambitious web developer looking for an opportunity to realize the Frontend Developer's career and gain some new experiences in the field of Web programming. For me coding is not an ordinary job, it is something that I really enjoy in. My goal is to do great things in the field of both personal and company development and I am of a thinking that limits and boundaries do not exist.
